

Ashley--- has been working with the library since August. A Dupo resident for more than 20 years, she loves planning community events and programs for the library that get everyone in town involved. She spends her free time reading psychological thrillers, camping with family, and playing board games with her children and partner. She also enjoys a multitude of crafts, shopping online, puzzles, terrible Christmas movies, and cozy socks.